

6516206585.txt

By limiting XM's first admendment, you are limiting freedom, which over 800 soldiers have already died for in the War on Terrorism. At least I thought that was what we are doing. The traffic reports and weather updates are very helpful while one is driving. Especially when you have kids in the car and are in a hurry to get to your destination. You should reconsider taking away XM's rights as an American Business.